current happenings

WHAT IS THE CHURCH? Jesus loves the church. He died and rose again for the church that he is building (Ephesians 5:25). He promised that the gates of hell would not prevail against her (Matthew 16:18). But what is the church? We don't have to look far to see that the church is often deeply flawed and sinful. Still, what is God cleansing and calling the church to be? Join us May 17th as we begin a four-week sermon series entitled What Is the Church?: One • Holy • Universal • Apostolic.

ADULT BIBLE CLASS (Room 110 - 9:30 a.m.) Jeff Dimick is leading a new 8-week class on the book of Hebrews. Using resources from Spoken Gospel, we'll explore this rich and inspiring New Testament letter together.

WOMEN'S BIBLE CLASS (Room 113 - 9:30 a.m.) We will be taking a summer break beginning this Sunday, May 3, until fall. However, you are invited to gather for fellowship and prayer each week in room 113 at 9:30.

BIBLE READING BASICS (Room 206 - 9:30 a.m.) Whether you are a new student of the Bible or a seasoned reader, understanding how the Bible was written can help us all better understand and participate in the transformative power of Scripture. Join us as we explore the Bible's different literary styles and learn how each uniquely contributes to the overall story of Scripture. Everyone is welcome.

GROWING TOGETHER: Families with Young Children (Room 207 - 9:30 a.m.) Growing Together is a group for parents of young children to connect, learn, and build community through meaningful conversation. Cris Gomes is leading a discussion on the book, Seculosity. Come and join the conversation!
