

Adult Bible Classes and Studies

Women's Class meets at 9:30 a.m. in room 113, led by Angela Piercey and June Cromling.

For anyone who has suffered, faced life's disappointments, or has unmet expectations for how life has turned out, you can trust your WayMaker is making a way through.

In this timely study by Ann Voskamp, discover the S.A.C.R.E.D. daily habit, a way of life, that will reorient our souls in relation to God through Scripture, prayer, and study. Through six video sessions, Ann guides us through this powerful spiritual practice, which is a directing compass through all seasons – even when it feels like there is no way through.

No matter what season you find yourself in, this guiding practice will help you navigate the storms of life and find an internal calm and peace in Christ that is anchored and unwavering.

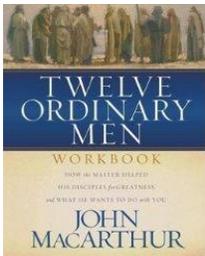

This class is great for parents who need support from a community of other parents walking through the same challenges and milestones with their little ones. Join us Sundays at 9:30 a.m. in classroom 206 upstairs. Led by Brent Stafford.

Introduction to the Apocrypha

STARTS SUNDAY, 9/25/22 • ROOM 110 • LED BY RYAN STEPHENSON & LUKE WALVOORD

Introduction to the Apocrypha meets Sunday mornings at 9:30 a.m. in room 110, led by Ryan Stephenson and Luke Walvoord. For most Christians today, the Apocrypha is nothing more than a marginal curiosity or object of suspicion. In reality these works show a glimpse of the thought, tradition, and faith of Judaism during Jesus' day. This class will introduce these works and unveil the influence they had on early Christianity. Based on the book by David DeSilva, Introducing the Apocrypha.

Come Study with Us!

Wednesday Evening Bible Study • Meets at 6:30 in Room 113 • Led by Jane Loafman

Twelve ordinary men changed the world through one extraordinary man, Jesus. Who are they and how did they do it? Meet these twelve men, see their hearts the way Jesus saw them, and learn from them. This study meets at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday nights in room 113.

History and Culture of the New Testament begins Sunday, October 2, at 9:30 a.m. in the Auditorium. This class will look at the lifestyles, philosophies, and society at the time of Jesus; and how an understanding of that era can better our own knowledge of the lessons he taught. Led by Monte Stephens.
