TODAY WE COMPLETE our January sermon series, Scattered & Gathered: The People of God. The story of God's people has rhythm. One of the most important rhythms of that story is scattering and gathering. Throughout Israel's history, there are moments of dispersal and moments of assembly—times when they are put to flight and times when God reconvenes them as a hen gathers her chicks. How does this rhythm play out in our life with God and in the life of the church?
