current happenings

TODAY CONCLUDES our series Philippians: One Spirit, One Mind, One Love. Of all the Apostle Paul's letters, perhaps none is so focused on unity as Philippians. Throughout this book, Paul rejoices that the church at Philippi is "standing firm in one spirit, striving side by side with one mind for the faith of the gospel." This one mind that holds them together is the mind of Christ: the Messiah who humbly went to the cross to show the depths of God's unifying love.

UPCOMING SERIES: Violence abounds. Turmoil reigns. There are conflicts everywhere there are humans. In this warring world, Jesus stood on a mountain and called peacemakers blessed children of God. He taught forgiveness, reconciliation, enemy-love, and turning the other cheek. But how is that possible in the world of sin we inhabit? The only way we can follow his way is by trusting Ephesians 2:14: Jesus Christ "is our peace." Join us October 29th, as we begin a five-week series called Blessed Are the Peacemakers.
