COMMUNION time will continue during the pandemic. We ask that you space yourself and your family from others when you come to the table.

GIVING please continue to give during this current season, so that ministries of The Springs may continue. Give online or mail a check.

CONNECTION GROUPS were made for THIS season! Today's landscape and pace of life can be difficult. Don't do it alone. Find a group that fits your schedule and season of life. Discover real community, seek growth and a place where you belong in a Connections Group! The Springs Delegate for Connections Groups is Jason Henley. Contact Jason for ways you can find your connection at: jasonnealhenley@hotmail.com

PRAYER NEEDS TODAY? Prayer Team members are ready to pray with you and for you! If you have needs or concerns, please email info@thesprings.cc or submit your requests via The Springs website. Did you know that we have a prayer needs link? From the homepage of the website, in the middle of the page, you will find a button labeled NEED PRAYER? Simply click on the button and fill out a prayer request.

current happenings

WE HAVE MOVED TO ONLINE ONLY for November 22nd, 29th, and December 6th. We are live-streaming the Sunday worship service at thesprings.cc/messages and also on Facebook at facebook.com/groups/TheSprings.cc
Please join us for prayer at 9:45 a.m., and worship at 10:30 a.m.

TODAY IS THE FINAL SUNDAY in our Revelation sermon series. Next week begins Advent at The Springs. David Bentley Hart said, "All of nature is a shattered mirror of divine beauty, still full of light, but riven by darkness." Everywhere we look we see struggle, discord, suffering, and strife. By sight, we see a good world that needs mending; by faith, we trust in the One who can restore. This season of Advent, we look to the Lord's healing, we anticipate Christ's coming, and we hope for the salvation only he can bring. Beginning November 29th, join us for four Sundays of Advent: Restoration, as we await the arrival of our king, Jesus Messiah.

A SPRINGS YOUTH GROUP BOOK DRIVE is underway to revamp the NorthCare Family Treatment Center Library for women who are recovering from addiction. These books will be placed in a activity room at the center designated for the sole purpose of allowing moms to safely spend time with their children. Books for ages 0-12 years, and for adults are needed. Since we are not meeting in person for the next several weeks, you may purchase a book from our Amazon wish list and have them delivered!

for prayer

Leah Fryslie had her tonsils removed last Monday.

Jamie Thompson, Holly Osburn's mother, finished her treatment for lymphoma.

Kathi Lovejoy, Dan's mother, has been moved from New Mexico to Edmond to assisted living and memory care.

Ron Osburn, undergoing more tests after spots were found on his lung CT Scan.

Brad Giddens had the stents removed from his kidneys and is doing better.

Phil Loafman's sister, Jann, undergoing chemo for ovarian cancer.

Lee Mullican, receiving immunotherapy treatment for cancer.

looking ahead

A FAMILY GATHERING has been moved to 6:00 p.m. the evening of December 13th, as we look back on the year that has been 2020, and prayerfully look to the future of what God has for us in 2021. We will hear from ministers, elders, and delegates about current and future ministry at The Springs. Join us!

CARING CONTRIBUTION Every year in December we provide the opportunity for you to give to The Springs Benevolence Ministry, which funds that special ministry for the next year to help with needs that come to us from our outside community as well as our own members. This year the Caring Contribution will be on December 13th. All checks noted in the memo and all cash labeled for Benevolence will go directly to this separate fund to help with needs throughout 2021.
Thank you for your generosity!
